

Checklist for submission

Please check if your submitted manuscripts comply with the submission rules.

Check

<input type="checkbox"/>	Format the text using All paragraph modes are set flush left on A4-size paper (double space), leaving 25 mm margins on all sides.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Original papers, clinical papers, and review articles: within 8,000 words, case reports and research bulletins: within 6,000 words, short reports: within 5,000 words.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Each submission should include three to four keywords at the end of the abstract.
<input type="checkbox"/>	The abbreviation (running title) of 20 characters or less is described.
<input type="checkbox"/>	The format of the paper should be in the following order: introduction, research methods (subject), results, discussion, conclusion, acknowledgments (if necessary), and references.
<input type="checkbox"/>	References are in order of citation in the prescribed manner of description according to the submission rules.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Photographs should be approximately 83 × 108-mm paper size, and figures and tables, etc., should be sent for immediate printing.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Insertion points for figures and tables are written in red in the text.
<input type="checkbox"/>	The manuscript should be arranged in the following order: cover, abstract, keywords, text, references, figure legends, figures (photographs), and tables.
<input type="checkbox"/>	For content involving human subjects, the World Medical Association's Declaration of Helsinki and the Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare's guidelines for scientific research must be observed. Moreover, it must be clearly stated that "approval has been obtained from the ethics committee" of the author's institution.
<input type="checkbox"/>	For content involving animals, it must be clearly stated that "approval has been obtained from the animal experiment committee" of the author's institution.
<input type="checkbox"/>	In accordance with the guidelines and detailed regulations on conflict of interest (COI), COI information for all authors of the paper has been submitted and is listed at the end of the text.
<input type="checkbox"/>	The author and co-authors are members of the Society for the Temporomandibular Joint if the authors belonging to the Japanese institutions.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Manuscripts are checked by the head of the institution.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Received guidance on statistics in the paper from a statistics instructor.
<input type="checkbox"/>	The patient's written consent is obtained for the use of identifiable photographs, imaging data, or genetic codes of the subjective patients, and that is described in the text.
<input type="checkbox"/>	The manuscript should be checked by professional translators if the authors are not English speakers.